The U.S. Department of Agriculture has evidence that on or about December 23, 2013, you or your organization committed violations of the following sections of the Code of Federal Regulations, Title 9:

2.40(b)(2) Attending Veterinarian and Adequate Veterinary Care....repeated failure to establish and maintain programs of veterinarian care that use appropriate methods to prevent, control, diagnose, and treat diseases and injuries

3.1(c)(3) Housing Facilities, General....repeated failure to spot-clean daily and sanitize once every two weeks

3.9(b) Feeding.... repeated failure to use food receptacles that are made of durable material, that protect feed from rain and snow, and to take measures to ensure that there is no molding, deterioration, and caking of feed

3.11(d) Cleaning, Sanitization, Housekeeping, and Pest Control ...repeated failure to maintain an effective program for the control of insects, external parasites affecting dogs, and birds and mammals that are pests so as to promote the health and well being of the animals and reduce contamination by pests in animal areas

The Animal and Plant Health Inspection Service (APHIS) created federal regulations to ensure the welfare of animals and help prevent the spread of animal and plant pests and diseases. Since violations of the regulations can have serious and costly impacts that are detrimental to the public interest, APHIS is providing you with an Official Warning for the violation(s) described above. Any further violation of these federal regulations may result in the assessment of a civil penalty, criminal prosecution, or other sanctions. If you have any questions concerning this Official Warning or violation(s), please contact the APHIS official listed in this notice.
